Meet Kate!

Kate Feller is proud to serve as Miss Irondale's Teen 2027 and represent the City of Irondale while preparing for Miss Alabama's Teen. A dedicated student, dancer, and community volunteer, Kate is passionate about literacy and service through Drive to Read, which works to place books into the hands of children and families throughout Alabama and beyond.

Kate looks forward to using her year of service to connect with the community, encourage young people, and support organizations making a difference.

Invite Kate to Your Event!
